

GARSTANG DAY

SATURDAY 3 MAY

Dawn Chorus

5am-6am. Free. 0.5 Miles Grade Easy

Join the Countryside team on this early morning birdwatch, where hopefully we will hear the chorus of bird song.

Garstang to the Fells and Back

9am-5.30pm. £6. 16.5 Miles Grade V Hard

A walk from Garstang, rising through pastures and villages to high moorland, taking in some fantastic views along the way.

Garstang Library Family Nature Discovery Activity

10am -11am. Free. Garstang Library

Take part in an indoor family nature discovery activity. A drop in introduction to nature session

Book online at [www.wyre.gov.uk/

garstangwalkingfestival](http://www.wyre.gov.uk/garstangwalkingfestival)

Garstang Now and Then

10am-2pm. £4. 5.5 Miles Grade Moderate

Reflects on the comparisons over the years in the area around Garstang. We find a disused railway, a ruined castle, a ruined well and a forge. We observe the flood barrier, Millennium Green and eat our lunch in the grounds of a twentieth century church and appreciate glorious views.

Garstang Short Walk

11am-12 noon. Free. 2 Miles Grade Easy

Join our Volunteer walk leaders for this relaxed walk along the footpaths and canal towpaths of Garstang.

Co-ordinated by

Supported by

